

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ON ACADEMIC COOPERATION

Between

NORTH ISLAND COLLEGE
Courtenay, British Columbia, Canada

And

Nakamura Gakuen University
Nakamura Gakuen University Junior College
Fukuoka, Japan

North Island College is honoured to acknowledge the traditional territories of the combined 35 First Nations of the Nuu-chah-nulth, Kwakwaka'wakw and Coast Salish traditions, on whose traditional and unceded territories the College's campuses are situated

Located in Courtenay, British Columbia, North Island College is a special purpose public college that is committed to high quality and excellence in its programs and services. It offers more than 900 courses and 70 credit programs supported by a dedicated faculty, staff and administration – all working together to support learner success.

Nakamura Gakuen was established in 1954 with the aim of developing nurturing people who combine expertise in nutrition with skill in the preparation of traditional Japanese and other cuisines. For over half a century, the school has sent many graduates into society, nurturing specialists in Japanese foods as well as promising talent in the fields of secondary education and early childhood education.

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU) is designed to foster a mutually beneficial relationship through cooperation in teaching and research between North Island College (NIC) and Nakamura Gakuen University, Nakamura Gakuen University Junior College (NGU) hereinafter jointly referred as "The Parties". No financial obligations are assumed under this agreement.

The Parties have reached agreement on the following areas of cooperation, subject to mutual consent and the availability of sufficient funding:

- Exchange of faculty
- Joint research development and program development
- Transfer of credits/credential for degree/diploma completion
- Double degree opportunities
- Participation in seminars and academic meetings
- Exchange of academic materials and other information
- Special short-term academic programs
- Virtual classroom collaborations
- Student exchange for research and study

The terms of such mutual assistance and funding for any specific program and activity shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to the initiation of a particular program.

Each institution will designate an individual to coordinate this program and all endeavors that may derive from it. For this purpose, Nakamura Gakuen University designates Fumiko Tsuruta, International exchange coordinator and North Island College designates Romana Pasca, Manager, International Projects, Partnerships and Global Education, Office of Global Engagement.

No amendment, consent, or waiver of terms of this MOU shall bind either party unless in writing and signed by all parties. Any such amendment, consent, or waiver shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specified purpose given. The parties to this MOU, by the signatures below of their authorized representatives, acknowledge having read and understood this MOU and agree to be bound by its terms and conditions.

This MOU shall commence on the date of latest signature and be in effect for five (5) years, at which time it shall be reviewed for possible extension. Either party may terminate this MOU by written notification signed by the appropriate official of the institution initiating the notice. However, such notification must be received by the other party at least six (6) months prior to the effective date of termination. This agreement will become the basis for more specific areas of cooperation and collaboration which will be formally agreed to, and become addendums to this Agreement.

FORCE MAJEURE

Parties here to will be released from their obligations under this agreement in the event of national emergency, war, prohibitive government regulation or any other clause beyond the control of the parties hereto that renders the performance of this agreement impossible provided that any money that is due under this agreement shall become forthwith due and payable.
